

SUDC UK likes to keep in touch with registered families to share information regarding our services and activities. To do this we store contact information and a record of how you'd like to be contacted. Please read our privacy policy at www.sudc.org.uk/privacy-policy and contact preferences listed below and choose which options best suit you.

SUDC UK's Privacy Statement

Families registered with SUDC UK will have their details added to our family contact databases. There are separate databases for fundraising, advocacy, volunteering and support activities. In these databases a factual record of your details will be stored for use by SUDC UK. We will only contact you in the ways you have selected on this form.

We will never sell your data and will not pass your details onto any third party except our affiliate the SUDC Foundation as is detailed in our affiliation agreement, a policy approved by the UK charity commission.

We promise to keep all your details safe and secure and if you have any issues with communication from SUDC UK, you have the right to contact us and request communication ceases. You can request to see or delete your stored data at any time. SUDC UK operates in line with GDPR data protection regulations. For more information you can request to see our privacy policy.
